

ANDRZEJ SIELSKI

Andrzej Sielski, Financial Director and President of Management RADPOL SA has joined the company in 1998, primary taking over the position the Proxy and the Manager of Financial and Controlling Department. In 2002, through his high competence in management of human resources and efficiency in realization of aims he became the Financial Director of the company. Being the President of Management Andrzej Sielski has built strong structure of the company and has extended company's portfolio, entering into co-operation with foreign partners. This way he has secured the company for position one of the most and very dynamic developing Polish firms at this line of trade.

Before Andrzej Sielski has taken the position of Manager of Financial and Controlling Department he had acted as Credit Inspector and later as Assistant Manager Credits Department at Bank Gdański SA (section Chojnice) and at BIG Bank Gdański SA (section Chojnice)

Andrzej Sielski has graduated Uniwersytet Mikołaja Kopernika in Toruń, faculty of economic sciences and also banking studies on Gdańska Akademia Bankowa attached to Instytut Badań nad Gospodarką Rynkową. In addition, in 1999 he has graduated Controller Diploma of Gdańska Akademia Controllingu.

Andrzej Sielski was born in 1967, he is married, and he has two children. He has passion for classical music, philosophy and economy